

Spokane River Regional Toxics Task Force
Potential Future Meeting Topics - 2020
(in addition to regularly scheduled items)

January 22 (or other date?) – Conference Call (if needed)

- Approve 2019 accomplishments
- Update on measurable progress report process
- Discuss other business

February 26 - LLSW

- 2018 biofilm, invertebrates and sediment sample study – approve final report? Update on 2019 study?
- Data review findings and introduce outline of plans for targeted sampling plan for non-point source loading during higher flows
- PMF Phase 2 scope, as applicable
- Introduce long-term monitoring approach concepts and follow up investigations
- Introduce fish sampling approach outline
- TiO2 QAPP approval?
- MOA revisions?

March 25 - SCWRC

- Discuss fish sampling recommended approach
- Discuss/approve 2020- 2021 work plan items
- Preliminary discussion of long-term monitoring recommendations/2020- 2021 work plan tasks
- Amended agreed orders with Kaiser and clean-up plan
- Media campaign update
- Any February items that shifted or need follow up

April 22 - LLSW

- Discuss/approve updated fish sampling approach
- Task Force approve next steps for LT monitoring strategy
- Discuss/approve QAPP for non-point source synoptic sampling for higher flows
- Discuss/approve 2020- 2021 work plan items and approve any remaining summer monitoring activities to give ACE lead time for getting agreements in place
- Begin discussing next WA State Legislature 2021 session objectives

May 27 – Conference Call (if needed)

June 24 - LLSW

- Discuss synoptic sampling for high flows
- Discuss WA State Legislature 2021 session objectives

July – no meeting or call

August 26 - LLSW

- Media campaign results

September 23 – Conference Call (if needed)

October 28 - LLSW

- WA State Legislature 2021 session strategy

November 20 – Conference Call (moved up to avoid Thanksgiving)

December 2 - SCWRC

- Draft 2020 accomplishments

DRAFT